Hours Of Relaxation

By zeariel

What a wonderful coloring book! One sided and very detailed artwork makes for hours of fun. I've only spent about two hours with it so far and haven't finished one yet. beautifully done!

I loved the designs in this coloring book

By Chrisy

I loved the designs in this coloring book, and while the intricacy that exists in some of them may not be for everyone, I am a huge fan!

A bulk of the designs seems to be done by the same artist, the ones with more 'tribal' like patterns, and thick lining on the outline of the elephant's body or head. One downside is several designs that were poorly copied and seem to be faded on the page or lifted from a third party source.

The paper is rather thick, I was able to color it with watercolor and watercolor pencils, markers would definitely bleed through. I would have preferred perforated pages, but I ended up just ripping the binding of the book, and ending up with a stack of the coloring pages, which solved the issue for me. If you are someone who colors within the book without tearing out the page this definitely won't be an issue. The only concern I did have was the potential of stolen artwork, but I scanned a few of the pages and ran them through a reverse image search and found nothing, which leads me to (hopefully!) believe all the artwork is original. I love this coloring book, hands down one of the better ones I have done in a while.?

Beautiful elephant drawings!!

By A. Mccreary

Love this coloring book...the pictures are absolutely gorgeous!! The ONLY complaint I have is that the pages are kind of thin, but I typically use colored pencil not markers so it shouldn't be an issue for me, just a word of warning if you use markers to place a sheet of paper or two in between when coloring.
