A classic book on international finance

By kamal nayan bhandari

this is an excellent book written in simple language,yet explaining the concept clearly. i read an older version of this book in 1995 and in 2013 when i needed to refresh my concept i again took help of this classic by dr maurice levi. i consider this book along with international economics by kennan and multinational corporations by dunning as excellent combination for international management course.
