Another fix for a Shadowrun addict

By Myron Harrod

I love anthologies and collections and whatever else you call a bunch of short pieces by various authors. I love Shadowrun. So, right there, World of Shadows has me hooked. I won't say all the stories are winners, but, just about all of them are readable and have plenty of Sixth World flavor. Most of them require no previous knowledge of the Shadowrun world, just a willingness to get some magic in your cyberpunk and visa versa. I will mention that I was very excited to have a new story by Michael Stackpole, especially since it featured Wolfgang Kies, my favorite Shadowrun character. Patrick Goodman, Russell Zimmerman and Mel Odom have written Shadowrun novels I have also enjoyed. They have stories in here that should entertain other readers as much as they entertained me.

So many great short stories

By Christina

This is an amazing collection of Shadowrun short stories. Each author's story draws on a different aspects of the 6th world. Magic, Noir, Intrigue, Brawls, and the Matrix.

It's a great introduction to a plethora of Shadowrun/Cyberpunk authors.
