No one-fictional or factual-embodies the Jazz age as completely as F. Scott Fitzgerald's Jay Gatsby. First published in 1925, this legendary novel continues to enthrall generations as it serves as a lens to view our not-so-distant past. Many of our notions about that period are taken from the pages of this book. Bathtub gin, flappers, and house parties that last all week enliven Fitzgerald's classic tale. Stylish and engaging, The Great Gatsby is also a startling literate portrait of Gatsby's search for meaning in his opulent world. With his sharp social insight and breathtaking lyricism, Fitzgerald stands out as one of the most important American writers of the 20th century. Frank Muller's timeless interpretation enhances the imagery of Gatsby's stylish and unfulfilling world with brilliance and insight beyond the printed word.

Relived a Classic

By dwight

Read the book as a teenager; Watched the Movie and enjoyed it. Bought the audio book; Listening to it let me savor a really classic story.

ripped off.

By Scott F Feighner

CD of Great Gatsby arrived today, and was within the delivery window given by the seller. However, when I opened the package, instead of finding the CD of The Great Gatsby narrated by Frank Muller, I instead found a CD of TGG narrated by Alexander Scoursby. I checked this page to see if I had made a mistake. Nope. Descriptin clearly states that the audiobbok was narrated by Frank Muller. This is not what I ordered. This is not what I paid for. A word of caution. If you're ordering from Bookworm services, double check your order.. You're probably being cheated.

Not Narrated by Frank Muller

By cmuench@earthlink.net

Like the previous reviewer, I ordered this version because it was narrated my Frank Muller. The version I received is narrated by Tim Robbins. Not what I ordered.
