Poor instructions & requires use of products not available in the USA.

By Lilah

Let me tell you the reasons why I don't like this book.

1. Most of the nail art in this book requires the use of special nail art pens by "Models Own" that are NOT sold in the USA. I can only find them on international ebay and they would have to be shipped overseas. The price of the nails pens are very high ($12.50 each color), and the shipping added to it (approximately $5 each) makes each pen cost $17.50!

2. Some of the designs require nail polish strippers, they are cheap enough in the USA, about $2-$3 for each color, but they are tricky to work with and the author offers very few tips on using them properly.

3. She makes every design sound easy, but unless you are already very good at drawing and/or painting small things, they wont be easy. They will be a mess.

3. There are much better ways to recreate many of her looks using simple tips and tricks found for free on many nail art websites and blogs, that are much better suited to non professional home users, and will give much better results.

4. She does have a few easy designs such as glitter fades, marbling, and adding rhinestones, but they are nothing new or special, and nothing that you cant learn to do for free online using google or youtube.

I would not recommend this book to anyone who doesn't live somewhere where they can get the models own polish pens cheap, or who isn't good at free hand drawing.

Good...but...

By Sabaducia

I love the tutorials, but they require some pretty specific tools.

I wish there were more tutorials, or photos of the other designs featured in the book.

The style of the book is fun, but doesn't provide a lot of inspiration.

Not an idea book

By Tati

I expected a book full of ideas and way to make different designs on nails but it barely had any. The ideas that were there were basic. Plus most of the book was talking about WAH Girls and no disrespect but that wasnt what i was interested in at all. It was honestly a waist of $ i could have gotten many more ideas in google.
